STOMACHS ON STILTS.

The man who puts on stilts does not increase his actual stature. He only feels taller. Stimulants are the stilts of the stomach. They make a man feel better for the time being, but he feels a great deal worse for them afterward.

The need of the man whose stomach is "weak" is not stimulation but strength. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery perfectly answers that need. It contains no alcohol or whisky. It cures the weak, foul stomach with its attendant bad smelling breath, coated tongue, bad taste, poor appetite and kindred symptoms.

"In the year 1899 I had an attack of indigestion and got so bad that my home doctor said he could not do me any good," writes Mr. G. Trent, of Gordonville, Texas. "I wrote to you and you advised me to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, so I bought six bottles, and when I commenced using it I was so weak could hardly walk about the house. By the time I had used one bottle my stomach and bowels commenced to heal. There were strips of the lining of my stomach or bowels (I don't know which) as large as a man's two fingers passed and I had a good deal of misery in my stomach and bowels, and also in the rectum especially. I could not eat anything without having much distress afterward, but by the time I had taken eight bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' I was sound and well, and could eat anything I pleased without suffering in the least. Could also do as much work in a day as I ever could. I have not suffered from the trouble since, and it was four years ago that I was so sick."

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make a little more profit. He gains; you lose. Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery."

Constipation causes and aggravates many serious diseases. It is thoroughly cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

HAIR NATURALLY ABUNDANT.

When It Is Free of Dandruff, It Grows Luxuriantly.

Hair preparations and dandruff cures, as a rule, are sticky or irritating affairs that do no earthly good. Hair, when not diseased, grows naturally, luxuriantly. Dandruff is the cause of nine-tenths of all hair trouble, and dandruff is caused by a germ. The only way to cure dandruff is to kill the germ; and, so far, the only hair preparation that will positively destroy the germ is Newbro's Herpicide—absolutely harmless, free from grease, sediment, dye matter or dangerous drugs. It allays itching instantly; makes hair glossy and soft as silk. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Special Agents.

Two Dyspeptics

If you are too fat it is because your food turns to fat instead of muscle—strength. If you are too lean the fat producing foods that you eat are not properly digested and assimilated.

Lean, thin, stringy people do not have enough Pepsin in the stomach, while fat people have too much Pepsin and not enough Pancreatine.

Kodol

contains all the digestive juices that are found in a healthy stomach, and in exactly those proportions necessary to enable the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all foods that may be eaten. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant, but it is a reconstructive, tissue building tonic as well. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Palpitation of the Heart and Constipation. You will like it.

Digests What You Eat

Rests the stomach, rebuilds the tissues and gives firm flesh.

Dollar bottle holds 2½ times as much as the trial, or 50 cent size. | Prepared at the Laboratory of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, U.S.A.

Encyclical Letter.

Pius X has just addressed an encyclical letter to all the prelates and others in the Roman Catholic communion which is considered the broadest and most far-reaching document which he has written since his elevation. The encyclical has just come to the apostolic delegation in Washington in the Latin form and will soon be sent throughout the country. The contents, however, were known to the American hierarchy at the time of their conference in Washington last week, and formed the principal topic of discussion.

According to the prelates, the encyclical is especially important, since it speaks authoritatively on subjects which are now harassing the American secular as well as religious world. Pope Pius speaks in positive terms on the vital importance of moral teachings for young and old and of the influence of religious instruction on the nation as well as the individual. He makes a general review of the deplorable condition of the world at the present time, and suggests the remedy lies in knowing more clearly and following more docilely the teachings of Christianity. For Catholics, he makes it imperative to study the catechism in order to build upward from a firm foundation. To the bishops throughout the world he makes the command that they teach and preach faithfully and constantly to secure this firm foundation.

Part of the encyclical, according to the church authorities, is timely in this country, where trusts, "tainted money" and kindred topics are engrossing so much attention.

Urges Simple Funerals.

The reading of a paper on reform in conducting funerals, by Rev. Dr. L. M. Zimmerman, of Christ Church, Baltimore, was a feature of the Eastern conference of the Maryland Synod of the Lutheran Church, which met yesterday at St. Luke's Church, Hampden.

In part, Mr. Zimmerman said: "Long lines of hacks, long bands of crepe, long addresses of eulogy, long lines of curiosity seekers, long lists of unnecessary expenses, should all be abbreviated. Often money is extravagantly expended at what we call Christian burials. Let the hour be one of privacy among the immediate members of the family, and the closest of friends, and not mere acquaintances. I would also recommend less extravagance in flowers. I believe in flowers as a sentiment, which many love to have satisfied. Let there be a few to make the mound look more like a garden in which was a sepulcher wherein was laid the body of our Lord and Master, but do not reserve all for the dead. Rather give more to the living, and at death instead of giving so much for the dead, give some of that money to the widow and children for food and clothing. Again, I would recommend retiring from the grave immediately after the service. Pneumonia, consumption and the like are but the natural result of prolonged services, and the undertaker's business is naturally increased. I would recommend the burial service to be held the night previous to the burial. This would enable those to attend who otherwise are often prevented."

Battleships in Race.

News of an eight-hour ocean race, in which seven big United States battleships participated, was carried to New York yesterday by the battleship Alabama, which arried in command of Rear Admiral Charles H. Davis, and will go to the navy yard to be overhauled because of the poor showing which she made in the contest.

The ships were coming up the coast last Saturday and were about 200 miles south of Cape Henry when the word was given for a speed test. For two hours it was nip-and-tuck, there being scarcely a change in the relative positions of the participants. By that time excitement was running high on board the battleships and the speed contest had developed into a race.

Finally the Massachusetts and the Alabama began to fall behind, and when the signal ending the race was flashed both these ships were far in the rear. The Alabama, which has the record of being one of the fastest battleships in the navy, was fully a mile and a half behind the Massachusetts.

At the finish the battleship Missouri, which had drawn away from the others, was only 73½ miles south of Cape Henry, having covered 126½ miles in the eight hours.

During the last six hours of the race the battleships were under forced draft. With the exception of the Alabama, all the vessels went to Hampton roads.

Strictly Genuine.

Most of the patent medicine testimonials are probably genuine. The following recently appeared in the Aitcheson (Kan.) Globe: "Joe Tack, a well-known engineer running on the Missouri Pacific between Wichita and Kiowa, lately appeared in a big one, with a picture, and when he was in this office today, we asked him about it. He says he had terrific pains in his stomach, and thought he had cancer. His druggist recommended Kodol and he says it cured him. He recommended it to others who were also cured." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures all stomach troubles. Sold by W. F. Creighton, 401 King street, and corner Queen and Patrick streets.

Japanese God's Scourge?

The Evangelische Kirchen Zeitung of Berlin yesterday prints a detailed report of Emperor William's remarks when swearing in the naval recruits at Wilhelmshaven on March 9, in which, according to the very brief report published at the time, he cited the Japanese as a luminous example of patriotism and soldierly fidelity. The Kirchen Zeitung's resume of the speech is a follows:

"The Emperor referred to the heroic deeds of the Japanese, and added that these are born of Japanese patriotism and love for children, which, in turn, resulted in splendid discipline in the army and navy. One must not, however, draw the conclusion from Japanese victories—victories of a heathen over a Christian people—that Budda is superior to our Lord Christ. The Russian's defeat, in his opinion, was due to the fact that Russian Christianity was in a deplorable condition. The Japanese, on the other hand, could show many Christian virtues. A good Christian makes a good soldier. Among the German people, too, Christianity is in a sad condition; and he doubted whether we Germans, in case of war, would have the right to pray God for victory, to force it from Him like Jacob wrestling with the angel. The Japanese are the scourge of God, like Attila and Napoleon. It devolves upon us to take care that God does not chastise us some day with such a scourge."

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 9, 1905.

LOSSES to strawberry shippers and commission merchants aggregated more than $9,000 in Philadelphia alone yesterday, as a result of the refrigerator car famine in eastern North and South Carolina, where the Armour private car trust exercises virtually a monopoly of the traffic on the Atlantic Coast Line. While this is but a fraction of similar losses experienced yesterday at other receiving points, such as Baltimore, New York, Pittsburg and Boston, commission men in Philadelphia say it indicates that when the full results of the trust's policy of neglect become known the estimate loss of $1,000,000 claimed yesterday will be materially increased. Absence of competition, as a result of the Armour trust being allowed the monopoly of the refrigerator car traffic, is declared to be at the bottom of the entire trouble, and permits the trust to turn a deaf ear to the appeals of the berry growers and shippers for sufficient cars. That the Armour car trust, after having procured a monopoly of the traffic business, is making no effort to carry ont its contracts, is the opinion of producе men. It is asserted that the excuse of a corp exceeding all expectations will not hold water.

AT A LUNCHEON given recently to the foreign consuls by the Chicago Commercial Association, Governor Cummins, of Iowa, expressed his fear that our attitude of hostility to reciprocity with Canada had resulted in the door of opportunity being permanently closed to us. He deplored the refusal of the Senate to ratify the reciprocity treatics negotiated by Commissioner Kasson, and noted that we are now threatened with exclusion from German markets unless we shall make a fair bargain by means of a reciprocity treaty. He said: "As Congress is unalterably, inflexibly and indignantly opposed to any change whatsoever" the only chance of getting free trade relations was through the election of "men who will do something for men who are determined to do nothing." In commenting upon this the Philadelphia Record well says:

But the Governor's party is too heavily morgaged to the tariff beneficiaries for campaign funds to do anything, and the country will have to elect a democratic President and Congress if it would secure a wider outlet for its surplus manufactures, and perhaps even its food products. Manufacturers and trade associations have asked repeatedly for relaxations of the tariff, but the republican party has sold itself to a limited number of powerful interests that are hostile.

AS HAS BEEN stated in the Gazette, bananas, the staple of the tropics, are so plentiful and cheap now at certain Atlantic ports, that at the steamers ridiculously low prices prevail. A record crop in the West Indies, the beginning of the reign of the strawberry and other domestic fruit and the preference for the latter have caused a glut. Banana prices at wholesale are ranging from 60 cents a bunch down to 3 cents, in Baltimore. Last week eight steamers arrived at that port. Their cargoes totaled 165,973 bunches. About a quarter of a century ago bananas, now so plentiful and within the reach of all, were an expensive luxury. They now form a household staple.

SINCE last Tuesday's election in Baltimore, the republicans in that city have been comparing notes to determine the causes which led to their unexpected losses in the councilmanic fight and now say they would have been able to make much better showing had the colored vote been cast in proportion as had been expected, as over 12,000 of the 21,000 registered colored voters of the city absented themselves from the polls. This is but an admission of the charge that has always been made that the colored vote is the main strength of the republican party in every city in the southern States; and this is the good reason why Mr. Gorman wants Maryland election laws changed.

ALL OVER Austria and Germany a story has been circulated that the United States Treasury has been looted of every dollar by burglars in the employ of American millionaires; that $268,000,000 is gone, and that the North Atlantic squadron is chasing the cracksmen, who escaped on five ocean steamers. The author of the report was quite ingenius, but he stretched his imagination too far. That the treasury has been looted is known by all men, as is also the fact that the millionaire trusts are the looters, but the "cracksmen" are too bold to flee and the North Atlantic squadron is not chasing millionaires, but dancing attendance to them at the seaside resorts.

One of the greatest shake ups in the history of the New York police force occurred today when Police Commissioner McAdoo announced the retirement of two inspectors, ten captains and forty seven sergeants. The retirement of the officers, the commissioner says, is because of their physical incapacity for the work.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., May 9.

Announcement was made today of the two tours which have been arranged for the foreign delegates to the International Railway Congress. Both parties will leave Washington next Sunday on special trains. The "short tour" will be through Harrisburg, Pittsburg, Cleveland, Buffalo and Niagara Falls, Schenectady, Albany, Springfield, Mass., and will end at Boston Mass., Saturday, May 20. In the meantime all the principal shops along the route, industrial centers and points of interest will have been visited. The "long tour" is routed through Baltimore, Harrisburg, Altoona Pittsburg, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Chicago. Niagara Falls, Hamilton, Ontario, Toronto, Canada; Lachine Wharf to Montreal, by water, Plattsburg, N. Y., Saratoga, and from Albany to New York city by boat. The party will arrive in New York city May 27. Those taking the "long tour" will be entertained at several points with banquets and other functions. The delegates this afternoon adjourned the sessions of the sections early and rode in special trolley cars to the site of the new Washington union station, where they inspected the work so far as it has progressed.

Officers of the navy, on duty at the Navy Department, are unable to account for the comparatively poor showing made by the big battleship Alabama in the competitive speed tests of the battleships of the North Atlantic fleet held last Saturday. The explanation offered by the officers of the Alabama that her bottom was foul does not satisfy the Navy Department. If the Alabama was foul, officers say, the same condition should also obtain on the other ships which were docked about the same time as the Alabama and have since had practically the same duty in the same waters. The Alabama is one of the largest types of battleships in the navy.

As soon as President Roosevelt returns to Washington he will be swamped with suggestions for money-raising by the official and unofficial advisers of the party who see in the rapidly increasing treasury deficit a menace to continued republican control. If the President follows his usual course in this crisis he will listen patiently to all the advice that is available and will then cut the Gordian knot in the manner that seems best to him for the welfare of the country. In whatever way he moves he will probably have the backing of the House of Representatives and is just as likely to find the Senate lined up against him. The "standpatters" of the party do not want the present tariff disturbed; at any rate they do not want the schedules lowered. They would probably be quite willing to have the protective tariff wall raised a few blocks higher and argue earnestly in favor of such a movement.

Postmaster General Cortelyou has signed a postal money order convention with Jamaica. The official paper has started on its journey to the British island and after it receives the signature of the Governor of Jamaica, will be enforced by both governments. The agreement places Jamaica in the list of countries with which we do a money order business at the regular prevailing rates.

It is admitted here that reports to the effect that J. Hampton Moore, chief of the Bureau of Manufactures of the Department of Commerce and Labor, is to resign his government position to become president of a Philadelphia trust company are correct. In that connection there is gossip to the effect that the President may offer his position to T. J. Shafter, head of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel, and Tin Workers, who is about to lay down the duties of that position. President Roosevelt some time ago intended to give Shaffer a place in the consular service, but Shaffer declined it because he did not care to leave the country. His name has also been connected with a prospective appointment in the Bureau of Labor of the Department of Commerce and Labor

The Postoffice Department today issued fraud orders against Waldo E. Barnes, jr., of Providence, R. I.; Goodwin and Co., of Chicago; and John D. Goodwin and Co., of New York; and J. and L. Frank, of Braunschweig, Germany.

Excessive rains in the central portions of the country, and frost throughout the central and southern Rocky Mountain districts, drought in New England, portions of Kansas, and in the New England states, and lack of cultivation in the southern states makes the general crop outlook rather unfavorable according to the weekly report issued by the Weather Bureau today.

Killed on Railroad Train.

Houston, Texas, May 9.—Former President Eldridge of the Cane Belt Railway met his enemy, Edward Calhoun, on an Aransas Passenger train this morning. Both proceeded to "shoot up" the car. Calhoun was killed. This is the culmination of a bloody railroad fued engendered by Eldridge while president of the road, killing William Bunovant, a director. The disorganization of the road followed. Eldridge has since been twice shot down from ambush, but survived.

Spy Ejected.

Buffalo, N. Y., May 9.—At the first session of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers yesterday, a delegate arose and pointing his finger at another delegate, said: "That man is a spy, and I demand that he be put out of the hall. He is in the employ of a detective agency that has been retained by a railroad company to report our meetings." No little commotion was caused by the announcement. The delegate by a general vote was unseated and put out of the hall. His name was not made public.

Situation Unchanged.

St. Petersburg, May 9.—The general situation in the region about Gunchuling, Manchuria, is unchanged, but it is probable that active hostilities will be resumed by the two great armies in the near future, and that another decisive battle will soon be in progress. The appearance of a large detachment of Japanese cavalry opposite the Russian right flank, is regarded as significant, and probably marks the beginning of the struggle.

For the murder of the turnkey, Jerry Condo, in the Centre county jail, July 29, last, Ira Green and Wm. Dillon were hanged in the Centre county jail in Bellefonte, Pa., today. The double execution was witnessed by fully one thousand people while double that many more clamored for admission.

The reports from many sections of Texas tell of great damage done by hail and windstorms.

Professors Von Glanvell and Petritsch of Graz University, and an official named Stopper were killed by an avalanche while they were climbing Foelzstein, in the Hochschwab group of the Styrian Alps yesterday. The bodies have been recovered. The three men were experienced climbers and were ascending the mountain without the assistance of guides.

A vigorous fight between the "Lily Whites" and "Black and Tans" for republican committeeman from Louisiana has reached a stage where it is entirely probable that neither faction will secure the coveted prize. Postmaster General Cortelyou, chairman of the national committee, is receiving many letters from Lousiana on the subject, and it is said his decision will be announced within a few days.

Death of a Painter.

Flavius J. Fisher, one of the best-known portrait painters in the United States, died at 7:30 o'clock last night at his home, 3423 Brown street, Mount Pleasant, near Washington. He leaves a widow and one son, Joseph Albert.

Mr. Fisher was born seventy-three years ago at Wytheville, southwest Virginia. At an early age he displayed talent for painting, and at twelve he was placed in a studio at Philadelphia, where he remained for about five years. He then went went abroad and completed his studies under the masters in Germany and Paris. He was the first American artist to be admitted to the German Art Institute at Berlin.

For the past twenty-three years Mr. Fisher conducted his studio in the Corcoran Building in Washington, where he painted the portraits of many distinguished men, including among the list the late Postmaster General William L. Wilson, ex-Secretary Hoke Smith, Cardinal Gibbons, and the late Albert Pike. During the recent illness of twelve weeks, which ended in Mr. Fisher's death, he completed the portrait of Samuel Miller, a philanthropist of Virginia. This was a remarkable achievement, as Mr. Miller had been dead for seven years, and the portrait was painted from memory. Mr. Fisher made several sketches which were submitted to friends of the deceased philanthropist, who pronounced them excellent likenesses. The picture was painted for the Female Orphan Asylum, of Lynchurg, Va. Friends of the late Mr. Miller said the portrait was lifelike.

The deceased artist had such a keen memory that he never required more than two sittings from his subject.

Death of Washington Duke.

Washington Duke, founder of the W. Duke Sons & Co. branch of the American Tobacco Company, died yesterday afternoon in Durham, N. C. He was in the eighty-fifth year of his age, and father of J. B. Duke, president of the American Tobacco Company; B. L. Duke, who was recently in trouble in New York State, and B. N. Duke, of Durham.

For several days he had been in a dying condition, as the result of breaking his leg several months ago.

The deceased was a poor man forty years ago, and made himself and his sons multi-millionaires in the tobacco business, which he began soon after the civil war. He and his sons had given to Trinity Methodist College, in Durham, more than a million dollars, and had given largely to religious, educational and charitable institutions, the total gifts amounting to a million and a half dollars. He was twice married.

Suicide.

Frank M. Everett, of Georgetown, committed suicide by shooting yesterday in a car in the Capitol Traction station on M street, Georgetown. He was taken to the Georgetown University Hospital, and died shortly after reaching that institution. Mr. Everett was about sixty-two years of age, and a resident of Washington for many years. He was a son of Maj. Everett, of the federal army and before the war resided in this city where he is well remembered.

Virginia News.

Mrs. Addison McIlturff, aged about 75 years, died suddenly Sunday at Woodstock while returning home from a visit to a neighbor. Her husband, two sons and three daughters survive her.

Miss Mary E. Kurtz died in Winchester yesterday, aged 84 years. She was an ardent supporter of the Confederate cause, and during the war was head nurse in one of the hospitals there.

The Virginia track team won a substantial victory over North Carolina yesterday at the University of Virginia in the second annual track meet between the two institutions, the final score being: Virginia, 69; North Carolina, 27.

Austin Johnson, colored, is locked up in jail, in Richmond, charged with criminally assaulting Ruth Pinchbach, 10 years old, on Saturday evening. Judge R. Carter Scott, the Mayor, the chief of police and fifty police officers assembled at the jail last night to protect Johnson from threatened mob violence.

After twice fighting for an immediate preliminary hearing of Shepherd K. Smith, of Manchester, who is charged with being implicated with his wife in the alleged murder of their six-year-old son, Commonwealth's Attorney Page yesterday sprang a surprise by asking for a continuance of the case until Saturday. The court granted the continuance.

SENATOR MARTIN AT CAMPBELL.

The Lynchburg correspondent of the Richmond Times-Dispatch writes: The announcement of a meeting in behalf of education, together with the advertisement of political speaking by U. S Senator Martin, and Lieut. Gov. Willard, attracted one of the largest crowds yesterday that ever assembled on the court green of Campbell county. The crowd was not only large numerically, but was representative in character.

The educational rally was given the right of way.

At 1 o'clock the court room was again crowded for the political speaking. State Senator Thomas, in a happy vein, introduced Mr. Martin, and was roundly applauded when he impressively stated that he had been won to the support of the junior senator's candidacy for re-election by studying the latter's public record and by scrutinizing his declaration of his future course in the event of his re-election.

Mr. Thomas particularly commended Senator Martin for his avowed attitude on the question of empowering the Interstate Commerce Commission to make and regulate railway rates.

Senator Martin received a gracious, but not enthusiastic reception. He was critically eyed by his audience, which was obviously unwilling to commit itself until it had heard the candidate and taken his full measure. The audience was calmly expectant. The democrats of Campbell heretofore have not been particularly cordial to Mr. Martin; therefore, he was strictly on trial, facing an audience that must be won or lost.

To-night scarcely a person can be found who will not say Mr. Martin met the issue in a surprisingly clever way. With the utmost frankness speaking plainly with astonishing facility, he addressed himself to the issues involved in his campaign for re-election and quickly won the sympathy and frequently the loud and long continuous applause of the packed courthouse. He reviewed his record in the Senate and, item by item, cited and answered the criticisms directed against him. That his vindication of his own record and reputation of these adverse criticisms were satistactory, to his auditors at least, was attested by the repeated outbursts of applaus and the enthusiastic greeting which Mr. Martin received at the conclusion of his address.

Senator Martin's speech made a deep impression. It also made him many votes. It turned the cold, critical attitude of the people who were in Lynchburg yesterday to one of evident friendliness and responsiveness. This is not merely the opinion of your correspondent; it is a statement of facts, abundantly verified by methodical inquiry and observation. Sunday, Campbell county seemed to Senator Martin's friends an uninviting point of attack. Yesterday it seemed to these same friends a hopeful field to win in the democratic primary.

Full Pardon Refused.

The British government has refused to grant a full and unconditional pardon to Mrs. Florence Elizabeth Maybrick, who is in this country in connection with the suit of her mother, the Baroness von Rouques, to recover many acres of land in Kentucky, Virginia and West Virginia. Information as to the attitude of the British government was received yesterday in a cablegram from Ambassador Choate, in connection with the application recently made by Mrs. Maybrick's attorneys, Messrs. Hayden and Yarrell, of Washington through the State Department.

It has been stated that Mrs. Maybrick was released on a ticket-of-leave. This is denied by her attorneys, who explained that while they are not at liberty to divulge her exact status she is not in this country on a ticket-of-leave. A ticket-of-leave person is not allowed to leave England and is always subject to the surveillance of the authorities of Scotland Yard. Mrs. Maybrick has a sort of quasi ticket-of-leave release, which grants her a sort of conditional pardon, but does not require her to remain in England or report to Scotland Yard.

Mrs. Maybrick was not able to accompany her mother to Washington, having been detained because she factured her knee cap by falling in New York several weeks ago. Her physician believes a hospital operation will be necessary, and immediately after going to Richmond she will go to a hospital for treatment.

Today's Telegraphic News

Possible Complications.

London, May 9.—The all absorbing question here today is the subject of possible complications which would enlarge the area of the far eastern war, as the result of the new charges of the violation of the French neutrality in Indo-China. In business circles as well as at the various legations this is the topic most discussed.

A London diplomat, whose government is friendly to Japan, to whom your correspondent today appealed for an opinion as to possible complications growing out of Japan's latest representations, said: "No danger exists of a serious situation arising from France's alleged violations of neutrality. All the powers agree that the attitude of the Paris government is entirely correct, and that France is doing everything she can to avoid offending Japan. The fact that the Japanese and French interpretators of the neutrality laws do not coincide is no reason for the charge that France is helping Russia. Nobody in his senses believes that the French authorities would aid Russia at the risk of widening the area of hostilities. It is evident that the Tokio government is now cleverly inspiring a newspaper campaign with the object of working up nervous apprehensions throughout the world, so as to influence France toward agreeing to everthing Japan says on the neutrality question, and expediting the settlement of the situation."

Paris, May 9.—The attitude of the press has been mild and the people have been remarkably calm in the present situation considering the fact that the facts as to the conditions in Indo-China have been malevolently distorted abroad.

In official circles the idea is scouted that there are serious grounds for imagining international complications can arise. It is recalled that the French laws of neutrality were proclaimed at the time of the Spanish-American war, and that they have never given dissatisfaction and have elicited no protest until Japan thought them disadvantageous to herself under the present circumstances.

The assurance has been renewed that the neutrality laws of the nations have not been violated in Indo-China, and Dr. Motono, Japanese ambassador, has not made any further remonstrance.

Paris, May 9.—Dr. Motono, the Japanese Ambassador to France, had another interview with M. Declasse, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, this afternoon.

Nothing has been given out in regard to the purpose of the visit of the Japanese representatives to the Foreign Office, but it is presumed to be in connection with the present situation in Indo-China.

London, May 9.—General improvement has taken place in the securities market and and alarmist predictions and reports of unfavorable financial and political developements impending are being discredited on the respective bourses. One large failure is conceded and some smaller ones are expected at the settlement. Tomorrow is the first making up day.

London, May 9.—Baron Hayashi, the Japanese representative here, today made the following statement in regard to the absorbing neutrality subject: "The situation is difficult, but there will be nothing in the nature of a crisis as long as France intends to maintain strict neutrality. France has given positive assurances of this more than once, and has repeated her promise."

Baron Hayashi also took occasion to say a few words in relation to the reports which have been circulated in Russian circles to the effect that Japan had violated Dutch neutrality in Borneo. He said: "I can give a flat denial, if such is necessary, to the stupid assertions in Russia, that Japan is violating neutrality laws in Borneo."

St. Petersburg, May 9.—The Novosti states that Lord Lansdowne, the British Foreign Secretary has expressed his recognition of the fact that France has not violated her neutrality obligations, and has declared that Great Britain would remain neutral if Japan should declare war on France over this question.

The Novo Vremya remarks that the Japanese went to see Admiral Rojestvensky treated as a new kind of Wandering Jew.

The Razvet Prince Ukstomsky's organ says: "Behind the Japanese machinations stands Great Britain who hastened to a threat of forced Russia to the edge of an abyss. The Anglo-Russian question should have been settled long ago, in which case the Russo-Japanese question would never have arisen."

Government Control of Corporations.

Denver, Col. May 9.—President Roosevelt in a speech last night at a banquet tendered by the Chamber of Commerce, made an unqualified declaration that the federal government should supervise and control all the large corporations. The speech created a sensation. The President left here this morning, at seven o'clock. The President said:

"I want to say a word as to governmental policy in which I feel the whole country ought to take a great interest and which is itself but part of a general policy into which I think our government must go. I have spoken of the policy of extending the powers of the Interstate Commerce Commission, and giving them particularly the power to fix rates, and to have the rates that they fix go into effect practically at once. And I say that this represents in my mind part of what should be the general policy of this country. The policy of giving not to the state, but to the national government, an increased supervisory and regulatory power over corporations, is the first step, and, to my mind, the most important step. In the days of the fathers of the older among you, the highways of commerce for civilized nations were what they had always been; that is waterways and roads. Therefore, they were open to all who choose to travel upon them. Within the last two generations we have seen systems grow up and now the typical highway of commerce is the railroad. Compared to the railroad, the ordinary road for wheeled vehicles and the waterway, whether natural or artificial, have lost all their importance. When such is the case, in my judgment, it is absolutely proper that the nation—for the State cannot possibly do it—should assume a supervisory and regulatory function over the great corporations which practically control the highways of commerce. I cannot attempt to speak in detail of all that should be put into the law, as I hope it will be enacted at the next session of the National Congress. Not only should this power of rates go in but in my belief we should at the same time deal with the private car, which, as regards certain industries, offers an even greater menace than is offered by the present system of fixing rates. I do not think that the law will have to deal with many subjects, but I do feel that with those I have mentioned, and with perhaps one or two others, it should deal effectively."

Destructive Forest Fires.

Boston, May 9.—Forest fires throughout New England are burning with greater fierceness than at any time since they started several days ago, and today it is believed the only thing that can keep them under control will be a heavy and continued downpour of rain. Already nearly $150,000 worth of property has been destroyed, many have been made homeless and a number of the fire fighters have been burned and otherwise injured while battling with the flames by the primitive bush methods.

Today these fires are still raging in many localities and hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of property is threatened. At one fire alone 5,000 men, women and children fought the flames and several thousand farmers, villagers and firemen are now engaged day and night in apparently futile attempts to keep the flames leaping through dry forests and grass lands under control.

Smaller fires are reported throughout other parts of New Hampshire, Massachusetts and Rhode Island. The most serious fire has extended into the four towns of Plymouth, Kingston, Plympton and Carver, in this State, where it is estimated that 75 square miles have been laid waste. Several buildings were burned and the settlement of Indian Pond barely escaped being wiped out. A fire that started at North Harwick destroyed 1,700 acres of thickly grown forest, caused a loss of $15,000 and reached Pleasant Lake, five miles distant.

At Wells Beach, Maine, thirty square miles have been burned over.

Anti-Semitic Outbreaks.

St. Petersburg, May 9.—Reports received from Jimotir, the capital of the province of Volhynia, say that many people were killed and wounded on both sides in the anti-semitic outbreak which occurred there yesterday. Details of the fighting are meagre and it is feared that when complete reports are received they may show that the outbreak was another Kishineff massacre. The rioting lasted all day, Christians being the offenders. They attacked the Jews bitterly, killing many and wounding others. The Jews showed the greatest courage in defending themselves and inflicted considerable damage on their persecutors. The number of the casualties is placed at twelve.

Rioting has proceeded for several days and the worst is feared for today. It is reported that the disturbances have spread to Tamboff and Dissineff, where it is feared there will be bloodshed. In the fighting that occurred both Christians and the Jews have been armed. The fiercest kind of fighting has occurred. The authorities have tried to put an end to the struggle by the adoption of oppressive measures, but their efforts have been unsuccessful.

Strike in Italy.

Rome, May 9.—The strike among the shepherds on the Roman campagna which has been in progress, has come to an end through the surrender of the employers. By the victory of the shepherds an epidemic of strikes among the down trodden workers of the whole district, however, is threatened. The shepherds rebelled against their small pay of five cents a day and the miserable rations of bread, oil, salt and cheese, which were furnished them, and struck. The peasants upheld the strikers and refused to take the places of the strikers. The owners of the herds were compelled to yield to the strikers lest the unmilked animals should die in hundreds. The strikers gained almost double pay and an increase in their supplies of food. Workers in all lines in Rome who are badly underpaid, and live under distressing circumstances, when they heard of the news of the triumph of the shepherds at once began to talk of striking to better their own condition, and it is feared other strikes will follow.

More Peaceful Conditions.

Chicago, May 9.—Peaceful conditions continued to obtain in the teamsters strike this morning. The employers made preparations to increase the number of deliveries and expect today to send out 1,800 teams manned by non-union drivers. There has been a slight spread to the strike, the furniture companies having taken the stand that they must deliver their contracted goods to "boycotted" houses. In consequence a number of their drivers quit work and more are expected to follow today.

There was one death from strike violence Monday, when Albert Enders was shot and killed by William O'Day, a colored union teamster, who was stoned by Enders, who thought him a non-union man.

Several minor disturbances have occurred today and some persons have been more or less injured.

Twenty-five People Killed.

Kansas City, Mo., May 9.—A private telegram received here says 25 people were killed or injured at Marquette, McPherson county, Kansas, by a cyclone or tornado last night. Telegraph wires beyond McPherson county are interrupted and telephone communication with Wichita, Hutchinson, McPherson, and other points are broken.

There was a severe storm in Burton, Harvey county, yesterday afternoon, with hailstones said to have been 15 inches in circumference. They killed horses, cows, broke through roofs and smashed all the windows in a passenger train at the depot. Fruit and shade trees were stripped. The path of the storm was two miles wide. Marquette, is a town of 500 inhabitants, on the Missouri Pacific Railway.

The Fleets.

Hong Kong, May 9.—The German steamer Neumeslin which arrived here reports that while in the vicinity of Kamranh bay on Friday she sighted 45 vessels of which twenty were warships. The steamer Saimun sighted a Japanese cruiser off Amoy, China, on Friday.

Paris, May 9.—Admiral De Jonquieres, the French commander in Indo Chinese waters, has organized a patrol service, through which full information regarding the movements of the Russian vessels along the French coast in those waters will be secured. It is announced that Rojestvensky has left the coast waters.

$100,000 as Damages.

Pittsburg, May 9.—Down for trial in the United States Circuit Court here today is a breach of promise case which promises sensational developments. Miss Edith Isabella Gibney, of St. Louis, has sued the family of Klaus J. Steiner, a very wealthy young architect, for $50,000 damages, alleging they conspired to tell untruths about her to her fiance, and so broke off the match. This suit is expected to be especially sensational, as Miss Gibney says she can show that she was engaged to marry Steiner, and that she came to his father's home for a visit at the request of his family. She remained there for some time, she alleges, and that after her return to St. Louis, Steiner's father and mother, as well as sisters, told stories about her which were untrue. The Steiners are among the exclusive social and extremely wealthy families of Allegheny. Miss Gibney arrived here this morning with her sister, Margaret.

Woman Hunts a Speak-easy.

Conshohocken, Pa., May 9.—A woman here in the role of Carrie Nation will probably accomplish what the police have failed to do—suppress the sale of intoxicating liquors on Sunday. When this woman's husband returned home Sunday under the influence of liquor, he acted in an ugly way and abused her. Arming herself with an axe she started out with the intention of demolishing the speak-easy where he had obtained his drinks. The proprietor of the place she visited barred her entrance. She was determined, however, and after several blows with the axe the door gave way. After getting evidence of the character of the establishment she departed. She notified the authorities and arrests will follow.

$5,000 For Old Walking Stick.

Tyrone, Pa., May 9.—Five thousand dollars for a walking stick may seem extravagant, but that is what John W. Gates, the millionaire, has paid for one, which has been in possession of Miss Lila Gates, of this place, for many years. The cane was given to Miss Gate's father by the proprietor of the Bingham House Philadelphia, sixty years ago. It contains a sword, on which is engraved a man's head and face. Miss Gates valued the cane at $1,000, but Mr. Gates thought it worth a much larger sum and has sent her a draft for $5,000. It is understood the cane will become the property of one of Mr. Gates's European friends.

He Fell to Death.

Washington, Pa., May 9.—Dr Charles Seif, a leading physician, of Westland, a small town northwest of Washington, was instantly killed Sunday night by a fall while asleep. The physician, who was subject to sleepwalking, some time during the night passed through a window in his room to the roof of a porch. The roof was slippery, and it is supposed he lost his footing and fell. He was found yesterday morning dead, lying on the ground in front of his porch. An examination showed that he had alighted on his face and broken his neck. The distance from the porch roof to the ground was only twelve feet.

Children Injured by Bulls.

Seville, May 9.—At the town of Villamanrique, eighteen miles southwest of this city, yesterday a herd of 150 bulls, which were being bred for the bull ring, escaped from the pens in which they were confined and made a rush for the open highway. A crowd of children playing on the highway were directly in the path of the wild brutes and the little ones were run down and trampled. Twenty children were injured, nine of them receiving injuries which it is feared will prove fatal.

Didn't Know Limbs Were Off.

Wilmington, Del., May 9.—"Take hold of my hands and lift me up," called James Gaynor, aged 35, of Heald street, to the crew of a Philadelphia & Reading train that had run over him at at the Christiana avenue crossing last night. The men started to do so, and were horrified to find that the man's arms and legs had been cut off. Gaynor didn't know what had happened to him. He was taken to the Delaware Hospital, where he soon died.

Want Female Suffrage.

Moscow, May 9.—The political activity which has excited all classes in Russia has extended to the women. A congress of several hundred women will assemble here in a fortnight to take steps to insist upon female suffrage in considering reforms to give the people a chance to express their opinions by the ballot. The congress will be unique in Russian history.

New York Stock Market.

New York, May 9, 11 a. m.—The stock market showed strength and some excitement at the start, and during the first hour there was continued strength in many issues, but the appearance of the floor is extremely quiet. London led in buying and has taken so far 35,000 shares. There is continued absorption of Northern Pacific, which advanced 4½. Commission houses were buyers.

The failure was announced this morning on the London Stock Exchange of E. C. Hawkins, a stock broker. The liabilities are estimated at over $250,000.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucuous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Latest Fish Story.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Coe and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Tellam, of Washington, who were fishing in the Potomac near Aqueduct bridge, tell of a wonderful species of fish which they saw. About five feet in length, bulky, black and sleek, like an eel, it rose ten feet out of the water, twisted itself in the air, and, falling back into the river, disappeared, accompanied by a great commotion of the water. Twice within a few seconds the strange creature repeated the performance, and, according to spectators, so great was the fear of the thing that all fishermen in small boats promptly left the river and gave the thing all the room it required for its strange exercises. "It was about 5 o'clock when this thing appeared the first time," said Mr. Coe, "and I could hardly believe my eyes. It looked more like a large barrel painted black than anything I could compare it with. But it was certainly alive, for it splashed about at a terrific rate, making large waves that rocked the canoes until there was danger of capsizing."

[This monster of the deep which has made its way into fresh water, it seems, passed by Alexandria without making its presence known. It may, however, cavort about our docks, creeks and coves on his return to Neptune's domains.]

A Dangerous Place.

The east end of the Wilkes street tunnel is in need of immediate attention, and the Southern Railway Company which has made a cut through the square running from Lee to Union street, thus virtually appropriating it to themselves, should be compelled immediately to place a substantial safeguard on the crest of the high embankment at the northeast corner of Wilkes and Lee streets. Present conditions are exceedingly dangerous, as part of the frail fence erected some years ago has been demolished, and sooner or later a child will make a mistep, roll down the incline to the railroad track probably in front of a train and another distressing accident similar to that of last week will follow. There should be something more substantial than an open-fence of the cheapest and flimsiest style under which children can crawl or roll. A wall similar to that at the west end of the tunnel should be required of the company, or an iron fence. Nothing unsightly should be tolerated. This is a matter which should enlist the immediate attention of the authorities of the city before an accident occurs.

Shipbuilding in Alexandria.

"It is reported that steps are being taken to organize a company which will undertake shipbuilding on a large scale in Alexandria. It is stated that considerable capital for the company is already in sight, and a gentleman of Alexandria, who is interested in the formation of the company, said last night that he believed the total amount desired would be obtained. The formation of this company and the location of such a large enterprise at Alexandria is but another evidence of the recent rapid growth of the old city, which is developing as rapidly, if not more rapidly, than any other in Virginia."

[Neither the gentlemen owning the shipyard in this city nor their friends know anything concerning the above, while they one and all expressed the earnest hope that such a report would crystalize into a fact.]

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Edward Dobbins, arrested by Officer Lyles charged with disorderly conduct in an electric car, was dismissed.

William and Joseph Powers, arrested by Officers Lyles and Henderson charged with fighting, were fined $10 each.

Mary Brown, colored, arrested by Officer Knight charged with assaulting Susan Gaines, was dismissed.

Henry Scott, colored, arrested by Officer Henderson charged with fighting, was fined $2.50.

Ben Hughes, colored, arrested by Officer Knight charged with a similar offense, was fined $2.50.

William Grimes, charged with running a bicycle over Jessie Burke, was dismissed.

Rose Roberts, arrested by Officer Young charged with maintaining a nuisance on her premises, was dismissed upon a promise to abate the same.

The Fishery.

A few straggling shad are being netted below this city, but the fishing season is virtually over. The scarcity of shad for two consecutive years has caused some to suppose that the species of the finny tribe is destined to become as sturgeon—few and far between. It is generally believed that trapnets in the bay and in the mouth of the river are responsible for these conditions, as shad are intercepted before they reach this section. A few of this species were offeed for sale by gillers this morning. They brought from 25 to 40 cents each.

Beaten Into Insensibility.

A little boy was beaten into insensibility by a companion on south Fairfax street late yesterday evening. The two were playing but became involved in a dispute which resulted in a fight, during which one of the youngsters beat the other on the head with a stick until he stunned him. The injured child was taken in an insensible condition to his home and was resuscitated after considerable difficulty.

A Little Nonsense Now and Then.

It looks as though the peace crop will be a failure this year.

The Czar would do well to get rid of the idea that Charles M. Schwab is still traveling for his health.

The frequent statement from the far East that "more firing was heard at sea" leaves us as much at sea as ever.

Banker Bigelow amended the old adage so as to read: A fool and the money of somebody else are soon parted.

Tom Watson is opposed to rings, which may account for the fact that the bell on the cover of his magazine is cracked.

The war in the far East is declared to have broken the record in some respects, and the diplomatists haven't had their inning yet.

There may or may not be a great deal of significance in the statement that the Kaiser intends to make his coming visit to Fez, Morocco, particularly impressive.

The Japs complain of "the elasticity of the French pledge of neutrality," which is one reason why their warships have had to do so much "rubbering" during the past few weeks.

The name of the French diplomatic representative in the far East is the suggestive one of General Beau. He has been so exasperatingly deliberate in sending information in connection with the strained relations of his country with Japan as to suggest the idea that perhaps France has more than one string attached to her Beau.

Senator Foraker has not been asked to attend the coming republican convention in Ohio, although it is customary to invite prominent members of the party on such occasions. It may by that the promotors of the Taft boom, which is to have been some wind pumped into it during the convention, feared an untimely outbreak of the fire alarm gong.

Nan Patterson Threatened.

Interest in the fate of Nan Patterson, the chorus girl thrice on trial for the alleged murder of Caesar Young, was revived a bit yesterday by the publication of a threatening letter received by the woman's mother, in Washington.

The letter, which was forwarded to Lawyer Abraham Levy, was addressed to Mrs. J. B. Patterson, Washington, D. C., Nan's father's correct name is John B. Patterson, but he has been known throughout the trial as "J. Randolph Patterson." Mr. Levy remarked that the writer of the letter evidently knew the proper name of the girl's father. The letter was as follows:

New York, Station B, May 5, 1905.

Mrs. J. B. Patterson: I am sorry to cause you some pain, but you will not see Nan. Although she cheated justice of the law she has more to deal with, and she will never go far away from the Tombs. I am the victim of another such woman as your daughter. I have sworn that Caesar Young's murderess shall not go unpunished.

Wednesday night, if the jury acquitted Nan I would have shot her as she left the Tombs. If she was convicted I could have committed suicide, as I have wished to for the last ten months. But my name will be famous yet as a lover of justice. The American people shall know that one man had the courage to avenge Young's murder. I write this so you will know that I am in no way connected with Young's friends. Yours in death.

ARMEDI BRAULARLAR.

Mr. Levy said he regarded the letter as having been written by a crank.

Sentenced to the Penitentiary.

John Adams, alias D. C. Jack, was convicted in the United States Court in Norfolk Saturday of robbing the postoffice at Waverly, Va., and was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary at Atlanta. The charge against him of robbing the postoffice at Manassas was nolle prossed. The star witness against Adams was John McCarthy, the so-called reformed burglar, who is now serving a sentence in the State penitentiary in Vermont. There were a number of other witnesses, however, who made up a strong chain of evidence against the prisoner. Adams is known to have been connected with several of the robberies committed, and a half dozen crooks under arrest at Richmond, as well as James Delay, Charles Cross and Frank Williams, in jail in Norfolk, are said to have been members of the organized gang by which the robberies were committed. The gang has robbed postoffices at Waverly, Ashland, Louisa, Gordonsville, Orange, Port-Norfolk, and have twice rifled the office at Manassas. They at one time were quartered in Alexandria.

Appointments.

Governor Montague made these appointments yesterday:

Virginia Commission to Promote Uniformity of Legislation—R. T. Barton, of Winchester; A. A. Phlegar, of Christianburg; John Garland Pollard, of Richmond. Member of the State Board of Dental Examiners (to succeed Dr. Richard L. Simpson)—Dr. J. P. Stiff, of Fredericksburg.

Charges Discrimination.

A. M. Aiken, of Danville, yesterday in Washington read a petition before the interstate commerce commission from the city of Danville, charging that the Southern Railway and its connections discriminated against Danville in favor of Richmond and Lynchburg. He said that the interstate commerce commission had ordered a reduction of rates, but the courts had reversed the decision deciding that the charges were not unreasonable. He wanted the commission given power to affix rates. Danville did have competing lines, but they had been acquired by the Southern Railway. Lynchburg had three competing lines and Richmond had water transportation.

Cement Brick Machine.

If the working machine now nearing completion meets the expections of its inventor, at Indianapolis, it will revolutionize the method of making bricks of cement. It is now possible for three men, working with hand machinery, to make 3,000 cement bricks a day. The new machine, employing five men besides those who mix the cement, will, its inventor asserts, make 6,000 cement bricks in an hour. The inventor says by the the use of the machine it will be possible to manufacture common cement bricks for about $2.50 a thousand, whereas the cost of manufacturing clay bricks is about $5 or $6 a thousand.

Bearing Important Letter.

Manchester, Eng., May 9.—The Dispatch says that Sir Mortimer Durand, the British Ambassador to Washington, who arrived here recently from America, is the bearer of an important autograph letter to King Edward, from Prestdent Roosevelt on the subject of the war in the far East, and the possibilities of bringing about a cessation of hostilities.

The letter, according to the dispatch, deals at length with the war situation, and contains suggestions as to the best ways whereby peace could be arranged. It concludes with a tribute to the King, showing the high appreciation in which President Roosevelt holds his worth for the furthering of the world's peace. It is understood that King Edward will entrust an autograph reply to Joseph Choate, the retiring American Ambassador.

The Dispatch in quoting a prominent naval officer says that the Japanese have organized a reserve fleet which will be strong enough to keep the sea communications between Japan and Manchuria open effectually, even in case Admiral Togo should be defeated by Rojestvensky.

This fleet, the officer claims, consists of four or five battleships, in good condition, and twenty fast converted cruisers. The vessels have been secured secretly from three different countries. The battleships are powerful enough to give a good account of themselves. The converted ships have been armed and fitted out with new engines, making them very serviceable. This work has been done by the Japanese themselves.

Washington, D. C., May 9.—That President Roosevelt is anxious for the cessation of hostilities in the far East and that he would regard the conclusion of peace, through efforts initiated by himself, as the crowning achievement of his career, is well-known. Sir Mortimer Durand will return to Washington shortly, and report to the President the result of his talk with King Edward on the subject. While, in official circles here, it is regarded as too much to expect that peace may be concluded in the very near future, yet it is believed that in the exchanges between the President and the other neutral rulers, the foundation is being laid for the conclusion of hostilities.

Want Woman Respited.

Trenton, N. J., May 9.—As Friday, the date set for the hanging of Anna Valentina, who murdered Rosa Salcha, at Hackensack, draws near, strong influences are being brought to bear on Governor Stokes to stay the execution, and it is thought that he will take favorable action. Petitions for executive clemency are pouring in upon the governor from all parts of the State and every surrounding State, also from the Italian government. Through the Italian consul in New York, the Italian Ambassador at Washington, has telegraphed an urgent plea to Governor Stokes to grant even a short respite to the condemned woman that an appeal may be taken to the United States Courts. The Italian government has also authorized the expenditure of whatever sum of money may be required for legal services and costs in taking the case in a last final appeal to the federal courts. Antoinette Tolla, the other Italian woman who is sentenced to die by hanging, in June, will have the same influence brought to bear to save her from the hangman's noose, when her time to die approaches.

Trenton, N. J., May 9.—Judge Lanning has refused writ of habeas corpus in the Valetina case. He, however, allowed an appeal of his decision, carrying the case to the United States Supreme Court, pending the decision of which, the woman's life will be spared.

Nan Patterson.

New York, May 9.—Nan Patterson is eagerly awaiting the determination of District Attorney Jerome as to whether he will admit her to bail or not. The actress feels that the State will never bring her to trial again, and she frets at what she thinks is an unjust restraint of her liberty. District Attorney Jerome gave no intimation today what he would do toward admitting the actress to bail.

Justice Foster has not yet signed the motion made by the counsel for the J. Morgan Smiths for their release from the Tombs. Justice Foster has also before him a motion of the District Attorney detaining the pair until he can determine whether they shall be re-indicted for conspiracy.

Schwab's Contract With Russia.

St. Petersburg, May 9.—Prince Mestachersky, editor of the Grazhdalin, says that Charles M. Schwab before leaving St. Petersburg, said that if necessary he would erect $2,000,000 plant to complete the orders he has received from the Russian government. The Prince quotes Mr. Schwab as saying that the American people having the friendliest feelings possible for Russia, and that a victory by Admiral Togo over Rojestvensky's fleet would grieve America, as much as it would the Russians.

Wife Murder and Suicide.

Richmond, Va., May 9.—Mentally unbalanced by ill health and despondent, Frederick W. Hill, a machinist, killed his wife at 3 o'clock this morning and committed suicide, making orphans of the eight children of the couple. Hill used a six chamber revolver. He fired three bullets into his wife's body, and three into his own. Before he fell he snapped the empty pistol in the face of a 12-year-old son

TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 9, 1905.

Lawful Debt Legally Collected.

When Mike left the employ of Brother Rubbles, who keeps a country store and also "farms it" in Washington county, Me., he owed a considerable balance to Brother Rubbles. Mike seemed quite willing to forget about it, but more intimate acquaintances of Brother Rubbles never lost faith that the account would be squared in due time.

After Brother Rubbles had ceased even to drop gentle hints about the little bill Mike became the owner of a single lusty hog, of which he was inordinately proud. He bragged about it unceasingly, and Brother Rubbles made a friendly call one day to see it and praised the hog in a way that delighted the heart of the lucky owner.

"Can't see how ye got him so fat, Mike," said Brother Rubbles. "Mine don't fill out that way. I guess it takes an Irishman to bring up a pig." Then after a pause Brother Rubbles added: "I've got a shote I'll give ye if you want it. I should like to see what ye can do with my stock."

There is an old saying that sets forth the danger of trusting the Greeks even when they offer gifts, but Mike had never heard it. At the first opportunity he went over to Brother Rubbles' barn and brought away the sorriest looking shote that ever lived.

The next day Brother Rubbles "levied" on the big hog. The law would not have permitted him to do that so long as Mike was the owner of only one pig.

Ocean Streams.

The fresh inflow of salt water from the Arctic seas which mingles with the inflow of the rivers produces in the regions of the north and east of the New Siberian archipelago a vast cold, clearing out current, which carries before it all the fragments of the central ice field, forming thus a mighty drift toward the eastern coast of Greenland. This cold current bears along on its surface floes, ice fields, icebergs, hummocks, etc., and washes up along the Greenland coast an almost insuperable barrier. When this current reaches Cape Farewell it divides, one portion descending straight toward Newfoundland, while the other goes to increase the current in Baffin's bay and Hudson strait. It is this last mentioned current which carries icebergs even down to the latitude of Vigo, and its power plays an important and capricious part in the meteorology of Europe.

Timely Advice.

When a certain financial panic broke out the senior editor of a trade journal published in the interests of business men and financiers was on a visit to a mining town. Fearful lest his junior in the office at home might give editorial utterance to pessimistic views and weaken public confidence still further, he hastened to a telegraph office and dispatched a brief message of advice.

It happened that the junior partner on this particular day had just become the father of a pair of fine twin boys. While his friends in the office were congratulating him upon this event a messenger entered with a telegram. He opened it and read the following message from the senior partner:

Dear George—Things look blue, but they will brighten up soon. Take a cheerful view of the situation. HIRAM.

The Great American Novel.

The great American novel, of which so much was once heard, does not come, but the work is gradually being written in departments. The country is too vast, as the novelists have perhaps seen, for one novel to cover the ground as they used to hope. They are, therefore, specializing, and some of them are writing so conscientiously and observing so well that those of our own practitioners whose tendency is to repeat a convention rather than return afresh to life with each book ought to be feeling uncomfortable.—London Times.

An Apology.

An excited military man entered the editorial sanctum of the Odessa (Mo.) Democrat, exclaiming: "That notice of my death is false, sir! I will horsewhip you within an inch of your life, sir, if you don't apologize in your next issue." The editor inserted the following the next day: "We regret extremely to announce that the paragraph which stated that Major Blazer was dead is without foundation."

A Polite Necessity.

"Your daughter is highly accomplished."

"Well," answered Mrs. Cumrox, "she knows a great deal about English literature and can speak several languages, but I wish I could hire somebody to teach her just what slang it is proper to use in fashionable society."—Washington Star.

Freaks of Fate.

"There goes Tuffnut, the pugilist. Under other circumstances he might have made a success of a very different kind."

"No doubt. With a fair tenor voice and his peculiar system of fighting he would have made a tremendous success on the opera stage."—New York Press.

The Trust In Doctors.

Fawle—When you come to think of it it's really remarkable how many people trust a doctor. Crosby—Yes. But don't you think it's even more wonderful how many people a doctor trusts?

Not Guilty.

"One of you boys has been stealing raisins again. I have found the seeds on the floor. Which one of you was it?" Tommy—It wasn't me. I swallowed the seeds in mine.

It would be a much more progressive world if we economized the time we give to other people's business.—Puck.

Man's Reasonableness

is often as great as women's. But Thos. S. Austin, Mgr. of the "Republican," of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasonable, when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife for female trouble, "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick she could hardly leave her bed, and five [5] physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters she was perfectly cured and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, price 50c.

Blessings of an Alphabet.

"Few people realize," said a college professor, "that the twenty-six symbols that we call the alphabet represent singly or in combination all the sounds of all the languages upon earth. By forming letters into words we are able to embody, thought, to render it visible, audible, perpetual and ubiquitous. Embalmed in writing, the intellect may thus enjoy a species of immortality upon earth, and every man may paint an imperishable portrait of his own mind immeasurably more instructive and interesting to posterity than those fleeting likenesses of face and form intrusted to canvas or even to bronze and marble. What myriads have passed away, leaving not a wreck behind them, while the mental features of some contemporary writer survive in all the freshness and integrity with which they were first traced! Literary painting is the greatest of all delineation! For it we may thank the alphabet and the Phoenicians for the alphabet.

"It was Gibbon, I think, who said that Phoenicia and Palestine would ever live in the memory of mankind since America as well as all Europe had received an alphabet from one and a religion from the other."

Taking Desperate Chances.

It is true that many contract colds and recover from them without taking any precaution or treatment, and a knowledge of this fact leads others to take their chances instead of giving their colds the needed attention. It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality, makes the system less able to withstand each succeeding cold and paves the way for more serious diseases. Can you afford to take such desperate chances when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cure of colds, can be had for a trifle? For sale by Gibson & Timman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

There Is a Difference.

The difference between Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar and all other Cough Syrups is that it moves the bowels, thus expelling a cold from the system. This relaxes the nervetissues and by its healing effect on the throat and lungs the cough is relieved—cured entirely. Kennedy's is the original Laxative Honey and Tar and contains no opiates. Good alike for young or old. Tastes good. Sold by W. F. Creighton, 401 King street, and corner Queen and Patrick street.
